Mindfuck (Song 2)

Vers I

How you love your little games
Those paranoiac schemes
I try to keep a grip on myself
But lose my calm again

Bridge

You fucked my mind for the last time

Vers II

I feel your breath in my neck
Probing once again
What if I where you? Would I be myself?
I look in the mirror searching for a clue

Bridge

You fucked my mind for the last time

Chorus

Here I stand, wondering again,
Who I am and if I'm still sane
Whatever happened to you my friend
I can't tell
So you did it again
Pushed me out in the rain
Nothing to lose or to gain
From your voice in my brain
